FFedit Keyboard Commands

CTRL-Q: Quit FFedit (attention: direct exit! Save your changes!)

PLOT-Mode (Standard)

Cursor Keys: Move cursor around
SPACE: Plot pixel
C: Color selection menu pop-up
S: Save a single frame
L: Load a single frame
F: Fill whole screen with current drawing color
RETURN: Toggle pen mode → pen up/down, draw with cursor keys
U: Undo last operation(s), only one undo possible
I: Display current frame number for a second
A: Animation menu
D: show disk directory
, (comma): Select frame number -1
. (full stop): Select frame number +1
1: Move current frame to backup area (caution: voids undo!)
2: Restore current frame from back area (as undo)
5: Select area to copy
6: Paste copied area
9: Save frameset to disk
0: Load frameset from disk

Color Selection Submenu

Cursor Keys: Move color selection cursor
RETURN: Select color
b: Abort color selection

Save/Load Submenu

- Enter the requested filename and press RETURN
- To abort the function just press RETURN without any filename
- Disk errors with error code are displayed if operation is not successful

Pen Mode

- RETURN toggles pen mode from drawing to undrawing and vice-versa
- Higher cursor blinking frequency is pen UP
- Lower cursor blinking frequency is pen DOWN

Animation Menu

- Select frames FROM and TO for animation with cursor keys (left/right cursor)
- Select animation speed from 0 (slow) to 5 (fastest) with cursor keys
- Animation starts and circulates all selected frames until a key is pressed

Save/Load Frameset

- Select frames FROM and TO that should be saved with cursor keys
- Enter a filename
- Disk errors (e.g. file not found) are displayed with their respective ProDOS error codes
- To abort press RETURN without entering a filename

Copy/Paste Function

- Select copy area with the cursor keys. A frame is dynamically drawn around the copy area
- White frame borders are also belonging to the active copy area!
- Paste the area back on any desired frame
- Move paste area with the cursor keys, SPACE places the paste area
- Abort copy and paste function with Q
- Last paste operation can be undone with U